Notes. The Festival Commission reserves the right to alter, modify or cancel any event in this programme.

When events are held in the Plaça del Cóc, the square will be closed to traffic beforehand. You are therefore requested not to park there on event days.

Under Act 34 of 1 October 2010 passed by the Department of the Presidency of the Catalan Autonomous Regional Government, children under the age of 14 are not allowed to attend the events involving bulls. Participation is also prohibited to all those who exhibit a lack of suitable physical or mental condition to do so.

Attendance at any event involving bulls is optional and voluntary and you should be aware of the possible hazards of participating.

Residents of St. Sebastià, Constància, de la Cinta, de l'Àngel, Trav. Devesa, Calderón de la Barca, Trav. de l'Àngel and Migdia Streets are also reminded that on 23 July at five minutes past midnight there will be an “embolat” bull, and on 26, 27, 28, 29 and 30 July at 12 pm an “entrance of the bulls”. For this reason, you are requested not to park any vehicles in those streets and to take any measures necessary to protect your property within the area blocked off by the barriers.

On July 28 at 10.30 pm a fire-running procession will be held along the itinerary stated in the programme. For this reason, the Festival Commission requests you to take the following safety measures: do not park vehicles in the street, keep doors and windows closed, lower blinds, protect shop windows and other glass and roll up awnings, do not hang out clothes or any other items such as flags, do not place any object that could obstruct the progress of the procession or the flow of pedestrians (flower pots, tables, chairs, etc.), do not throw any water until the procession has passed.

Paella Competition. Participating groups must register in advance at Radio Ràpita from 11 to 20 July. They should have a minimum of 6 and a maximum of 20 persons. Persons handling the paella pan must be at least 18 years old. The organisers will provide each participating group with 1 kilo of rice for every 8 persons and oil, salt and water. The rest of the ingredients must be brought by the participants. They should bring a paella pan stand, a paella pan, butane gas, utensils (plates, cutlery, cups, etc.). The organisers are not responsible for any accidents that may occur during the competition.

The organisers will set up a bar as complement to the event.
